

End SSI Cash-Out With a Full Hold Harmless Policy: No Californian Should Suffer from a State Policy Decision

CA4SSI supports an equitable end to California’s cash-out policy, which denies SNAP benefits (CalFresh) to persons enrolled in SSI. More than 1.3 million Californians receive meager SSI grants and struggle to meet basic needs. In 1974, California sought administrative efficiency in choosing the cash-out option to provide the then minimum SNAP benefit of $10 per month in cash as a part of state-funded SSP grants. That $10 has been lost to decades of inflation while SSI recipients are categorically denied \$140-\$171 a month in SNAP benefits.

The 2018-19 budget should provide an equitable end to cash-out that has caused hunger and poverty by funding a state supplement to SNAP that would hold harmless any household that would lose benefits as a result of this policy change.

If California ended SSI cash-out, approximately 400,000 SSI recipients would become enrolled in SNAP, and the state would draw down \$365 million in SNAP benefits. Single SSI individuals would benefit the most.

Yet ending cash-out would also reduce or eliminate SNAP benefits for 140,000 households that include an SSI recipient because SSI will be considered when determining the household’s SNAP benefit. The majority of these households would be plunged into poverty as a result, a simply unacceptable result. All of these households have heightened costs and challenges in caring for a family member with a disability – the majority of whom are children.

No Californian should suffer from a state policy decision. CA4SSI does not accept that ending cash-out can be allowed to result in low-income households losing SNAP benefits. California must include a ‘hold harmless’ provision for households that would lose some or all of their SNAP benefits.

Californians for SSI (CA4SSI) is a statewide coalition of over 200 organizations across the aging, disability rights, housing and homeless, anti-hunger and anti-poverty sectors. CA4SSI seeks to ensure that blind, aged and people living with disabilities living on SSI/SSP obtain adequate support to lead their lives with dignity.
