

Summer Internship: Communications

Join us in creating a California where every person has the nourishment they need to thrive. California Association of Food Banks (CAFB) leads the collective effort to end hunger by influencing public policy to enhance the state safety net, ensuring that fresh produce and healthy proteins are accessible to all Californians, connecting hungry residents with nutrition programs, and supporting our 41 member food banks in their work to feed our communities.

CAFB is looking for a summer intern to support its communications Department this summer. Key responsibilities will include creating digital media content, basic graphic design, video editing, and general administrative support for the team.

Qualifications:

- Basic graphic design (Canva) and video editing
- Familiarity with digital communications, public relations, or social media strategy, preferably within the nonprofit or advocacy space.
- Excellent research and writing skills, with the ability to present findings in clear and compelling ways.
- Knowledge of food security, social justice, or community-based organizations is a plus.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively within a team.

Additional Details:

- Our office is based in Oakland, CA. While a remote relationship may be considered, the ideal candidate will be able to work one day a week in the office regularly or periodically throughout the summer.
- The intern will work closely with the Communications & Member Engagement team and collaborate with other CAFB departments.
- A stipend of $10,000 will be provided for the equivalent of 375 hours of service.

Duration:

10 weeks (37.5 hours/week, June–August)

If interested, please submit a resume and cover letter to comms@cafoodbanks.org highlighting your experience with graphic design, digital media content creation, and communications.
